The above named, hereby makes application to be re-tested by the Automatic Door Suppliers Association in order to establish whether he/she now has sufficient knowledge to become an ADSA Authorised Technician.

Enclosed is a cheque for £ _____ in payment of the required testing fee [Members £35.00 (all non-member applications at preferential rate must be signed and submitted by an ADSA Full Member company); Non-Members £100.00] together with two recent passport-size photographs of the applicant. (Payment must be received at least 14 days before the test.)

The applicant undertakes to attend at a testing centre nominated by ADSA at a date and at a time notified to the applicant at least fourteen days in advance. In the event of the applicant cancelling within 3 working days (72 hours) of the test date, the test fee shall be forfeited and a new test application submitted. It is accepted that a decision as to whether the applicant has passed or failed the test rests solely with ADSA and there can be no appeal against the examiner's decision.
